

H.E. Mrs. Nicoleta Teodorovici The Consul General of Romania in Dubai / UAE

A Romanian diplomat woman, H.E. Nicoleta Teodorovici appointed in 2015 as the Consul General of Romania in Dubai , strongly believe in her mission to protect the rights and interests of Romanian citizens, to develop Romania's economic, commercial, tourist, cultural and scientific bilateral relations with the United Arab Emirates, to establish and support a continuous dialogue with Emirates counterparts to find the common ground for fruitful cooperation and successful joint projects, to highlights the national values, culture, history and traditions, as well as to improve the friendly relations with the host country.

„ Representing Romania, my beautiful country, is a great honor, United Arab Emirates being an emerging pole of business development, especially in areas such as global trade, tourism, cargo transport, industrial projects with advanced technology, digitalization, innovation, IT&C , artificial intelligence, food security, education & research“.

She managed high-level working visits of the Romanian Prime Ministers and ministers of the Romanian Government, high level delegation of United Arab Emirates in the home country, and has experience in creating opportunities for investors interested in Romania, providing them her full support to both government and private companies, as a part of her daily routine, and also she really enjoy to sustain the Romanian companies that want to develop their successful business in United Arab Emirates .”

„As a diplomat in Dubai I can say that is fascinating to be part in building collaborative relationships between Romania and United Arab Emirates that has had a fantastic evolution since its foundation on 1971. It is an extraordinary experience and always must to be prepared , to anticipate correctly, to be rigorous and flexible and to identify the essence of things. At the same time, diplomacy as a profession is a big challenge itself. Diplomats have to be well-versed in numerous skills: stress resistance, quick reaction, creativity, life-long learning, analytical thinking, sense of humor, concentration, attention, constant application to the subject of negotiation or discourse as well as permanent self-development. I believe diplomacy it is about professionalism, passion and patriotism“.

H.E. Nicoleta Teodorovici took her natural love for exploring places, culture, civilization, geopolitics and connecting people and earned a Bachelor's degree in geography and tourism and also expand her horizon of knowledge, following her passion for diplomacy , with graduation of Romanian Diplomatic Institute, as well pursued masters in communication & public relations, marketing & business communication, political marketing, which helped her to activate in top management in private sector and government administration .
